CARTE POSTALE — POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

The Church of the Badia was originally a Benedictine convent, founded about A.D. 1000. The present building is chiefly due to Segolini (1625), who left nothing of the 13th century edifice except a portion of the choir. The tall and graceful Campanile was erected in the year 1330, and was carefully restored in 1895.
